OFFICE MEMORANDUM

Subject : Employees of Non-Statutory Departmental Canteens/Tiffin Rooms located in Central Government Offices – Permission to appear in Departmental Examinations.

The undersigned is directed to say that the some employees in non-statutory canteens/tiffin rooms have brought out that certain Ministries/Departments are not allowing them to appear in Departmental Examinations for the vacancies advertised/circulated by other departments/their own departments etc.

2. As per clause 8.11 of Green Book, the employees Departmental Canteens were permitted to appear as Departmental candidates to take the interviews/examinations for recruitment to the posts advertised by any of the Government departments/offices, if they otherwise fulfill the qualifications and conditions so specified. The Departmental candidates are eligible to avail of any concession up to 35 years only in case where direct recruitment is made to group C & D posts in various officers.
3. It is again emphasized that the employees of non-statutory canteens/tiffin rooms, who are now Central Government employees w.e.f. 1.10.91, be permitted to appear as Departmental candidates to take the interviews/examination for recruitment to the posts advertised by any of the Government departments/offices in terms of the above provision.
4. All the Ministries/Departments are requested to note implement these instructions and also bring it to the notice of all the subordinate/attached offices.
