ORDER

01.08.2019

1. Mr. Kirtiman Singh, learned Central Government Standing Counsel

has handed over the status report which is taken on record. Copy of the same is handed over to learned counsel for the parties. As per the status report, Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT) issued an Office Memorandum dated 07th June, 1988 in terms of the judgment of the Supreme Court in Surinder Singh v. Engineer-In-Chief, C.P.W.D., (1986) 1 SCC 639 with respect to the recruitment of the casual workers on daily wage basis. The relevant portion of the O.M. dated 07th June, 1988 is reproduced hereunder

“Where the nature of work entrusted to the casual workers and regular employees is the same, the casual workers may be paid at the rate of 1/30th of the pay at the minimum of the relevant pay scale plus dearness allowance for work of 8 hours a day.”

2. The Central Government has issued fresh O.M. dated 29th July, 2019 to reiterate the O.M. dated 07th June, 1988.

3. With respect to the workers employed through the contractor, the reference has been made to Rule 25(2)(v) of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Central Rules, 1971 which provides that the workmen employed through the contractor shall be entitled to the same wage rates and service conditions as applicable to the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment on the same or similar kind of work. Rule 25(2)(v) of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Central Rules, 1971 is reproduced hereunder:

“25(2)(v) (a) in cases where the workman employed by the contractor perform the same or similar kind of work as the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment, the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service of the workmen of the contractor shall be the same as applicable to the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment on the same or similar kind of work:

Provided that in the case of any disagreement with regard to the type of work the same shall be decided by [the

Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central)]

(b) in other cases the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and conditions of service of the workmen of the contractor shall be such as may be specified in this behalf by [the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central)];

Explanation.—While determining the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of services under (b) above, the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) shall have due regard to the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service obtaining in similar employments;”

4. Vide order dated 28th March, 2019, Central Government was directed to file a status report on affidavit as to whether all Government Departments/ PSUs/Corporations under the Central Government including CWC are complying with the law declared by the Supreme Court in State of Punjab v. Jagjit Singh, (2017) 1 SCC 148. Para 25 of the order dated 28th March, 2019 is reproduced hereunder:

25. The Central Government is directed to file the status report on affidavit as to whether all Government Departments/PSUs/Corporations under the Central Government including CWC are complying with the law declared by the Supreme Court in Jagjit Singh (supra) by paying the wages in terms of the directions of the Supreme Court to the temporarily engaged employees (daily-wage employees, ad-hoc appointees, employees appointed on casual basis, contractual employees and the like). If all the Government Departments/ PSUs/Corporations are not complying with the directions of the Supreme Court in Jagjit Singh (supra), the Government shall forthwith issue O.M. to all the Government Departments/PSUs/Corporations to comply with the aforesaid directions and place the same before this Court on the next date of hearing.”

5. The status report filed today does not comply with para 25 of the order dated 28th March, 2019. The Central Government is granted one last opportunity to file the status report on affidavit in terms of para 25 of the order dated 28th March, 2019. The status report shall also specify whether the contractual employees of all the Government Departments/ PSUs/ Corporations under the Central Government are being paid wages in terms of Jagjit Singh (supra). The Central Government shall also specify in their status report as to whether the contract labour in the present case are entitled to the benefit of Jagjit Singh (supra). The affidavit be filed within three weeks.

6. List for consideration of the status report and further hearing on merits on 16th September, 2019 at 2.30 P.M.

7. Learned Central Government Standing Counsel submits that this Court impleaded Union of India as respondent No.3 in W.P.(C) 10165/2017 and as respondent No.4 in W.P.(C) 10665/2017 on 28th March, 2019. However, the concerned Ministries have not been impleaded as the respondents. The Department of Personnel and Training (DoPT), Ministry of Labour and Employment and the Department of Public Enterprises are impleaded as Respondents No.3(a), (b) and (c) in W.P.(C) 10165/2017 and Respondents No.4(a), (b) and (c) in W.P.(C) 10665/2017.

8. Mr. Kirtiman Singh, learned Central Government Standing Counsel accepts notice on behalf of these newly added respondents.

9. The amended memo of parties be filed by the petitioners within ten days.

10. Copy of this order be given dasti to counsel for the parties under the signature of the Court Master.

CORAM:

HON'BLE MR. JUSTICE J.R. MIDHA

J U D G M E N T (O R A L)

1. In State of Punjab v. Jagjit Singh, (2017) 1 SCC 148, the Supreme Court held that principle of "equal pay for equal work" expounded through various decisions of Supreme Court constitutes law declared by Supreme Court, which is binding on all courts in India and is applicable to all temporarily engaged employees (daily-wage employees, ad-hoc appointees, employees appointed on casual basis, contractual employees and the like) who are entitled to minimum of the regular pay-scale, on account of their performing the same duties, which are discharged by those engaged on regular basis against sanctioned posts.

2. Paras 51.1, 51.2, 51.3, 55, 57, 58, 59, 60 and 61 of the judgment in Jagjit Singh (supra), to the extent they are relevant, read thus:

"51.1. It is apparent that this Court in State of Punjab v. Surjit Singh did hold that the determination rendered in para 55 of the judgment in Uma Devi (3) case, was in exercise of the power vested in this Court under Article 142 of the Constitution of India. But the above observation does not lead to the conclusion or the inference, that the principle of "equal pay for equal work" is not applicable to temporary employees. In fact, there is a positive take-away for the temporary employees. The Constitution Bench would, in the above situation, be deemed to have concluded that to do complete justice to the cause of temporary employees, they should be paid the minimum wage of a regular employee discharging the same duties. It needs to be noticed that on the subject of pay parity, the findings recorded by this Court in Umadevi (3) case, were limited to the conclusions recorded in para 55 thereof (which we have dealt with above, while dealing with the case law on the principle of "equal pay for equal work").

51.2. Even in the case under reference, State of Punjab v. Surjit Singh, this Court accepted the principle of "equal pay for equal work", as applicable to temporary employees by requiring the State to examine the claim of the respondents for pay parity by appointing an expert committee. The expert committee was required to determine whether the respondents satisfied the conditions stipulated in different judgments of this Court including State of Punjab v. Charanjit Singh, wherein this Court had acceded to the proposition that daily wagers who were rendering the same duties and responsibilities as regular employees, would be entitled to the minimum wage payable to regular employees.

51.3. For all the above reasons, we are of the view that the claim of the temporary employees for minimum wages on a par with regularly engaged government employees cannot be declined on the basis of the judgment in State of Punjab v. Surjit Singh.

xxx

55. In view of all our above conclusions, the decision rendered by the Full Bench of the High Court in Avtar Singh v. State of Punjab, dated 11-11-2011, is liable to be set aside, and the same is hereby set aside. The decision rendered by the Division Bench of the High Court in State of Punjab v. Rajinder Singh is also liable to be set aside, and the same is also hereby set aside. We affirm the decision rendered in State of Punjab v. Rajinder Kumar, with the modification that the employees concerned would be entitled to the minimum of the pay scale, of the category to which they belong, but would not be entitled to allowances attached to the posts held by them.

57. There is no room for any doubt that the principle of "equal pay for equal work" has emerged from an interpretation of different provisions of the Constitution. The principle has been expounded through a large number of judgments rendered by this Court, and constitutes law declared by this Court. The same is binding on all the courts in India under Article 141 of the Constitution of India. The parameters of the principle have been summarised by us in para 42 hereinabove. The principle of "equal pay for equal work" has also been extended to temporary employees (differently described as work-charge, daily wage, casual, ad hoc, contractual, and the like). The legal position, relating to temporary employees has been summarised by us, in para 44 hereinabove. The above legal position which has been repeatedly declared, is being reiterated by us yet again.

58. In our considered view, it is fallacious to determine artificial parameters to deny fruits of labour. An employee engaged for the same work cannot be paid less than another who performs the same duties and responsibilities. Certainly not, in a welfare State. Such an action besides being demeaning, strikes at the very foundation of human dignity. Anyone, who is compelled to work at a lesser wage does not do so voluntarily. He does so to provide food and shelter to his family, at the cost of his self-respect and dignity, at the cost of his self-worth, and at the cost of his integrity. For he knows that his dependants would suffer immensely, if he does not accept the lesser wage. Any act of paying less wages as compared to others similarly situate constitutes an act of exploitative enslavement, emerging out of a domineering position. Undoubtedly, the action is oppressive, suppressive and coercive, as it compels involuntary subjugation.

59. There is no escape from the above obligation in view of different provisions of the Constitution referred to above.

and in view of the law declared by this Court under Article 141 of the Constitution of India, the principle of "equal pay for equal work" constitutes a clear and unambiguous right and is vested in every employee—whether engaged on regular or temporary basis.

60.There can be no doubt, that the principle of "equal pay for equal work" would be applicable to all the temporary employees concerned, so as to vest in them the right to claim wages on a par with the minimum of the pay scale of regularly engaged government employees holding the same post.

61. In view of the position expressed by us in the foregoing paragraph, we have no hesitation in holding that all the temporary employees concerned, in the present bunch of cases would be entitled to draw wages at the minimum of the pay scale (at the lowest grade, in the regular pay scale), extended to regular employees holding the same post."

(Emphasis supplied)

3. Vide order dated 28th March, 2019, Central Government was directed to file a status report on affidavit as to whether all Government Departments/PSUs/Corporations under the Central Government including CWC are complying with the law declared by the Supreme Court in Jagjit Singh, (supra). Para 25 of the order dated 28th March, 2019 is reproduced hereunder:

"25. The Central Government is directed to file the status report on affidavit as to whether all Government Departments/PSUs/Corporations under the Central Government including CWC are complying with the law declared by the Supreme Court in Jagjit Singh (supra) by paying the wages in terms of the directions of the Supreme Court to the temporarily engaged employees (daily-wage employees, ad-hoc appointees, employees appointed on casual basis, contractual employees and the like). If all the Government Departments/ PSUs/Corporations are not complying with the directions of the Supreme Court in Jagjit Singh (supra), the Government shall forthwith issue O.M. to all the Government Departments/PSUs/Corporations to comply with the aforesaid directions and place the same before this Court on the next date of hearing."

(Emphasis supplied)

4. On 01st August, 2019, the status report was filed by the Central Government in which it was stated that the matter relating to equal pay for equal work for the workmen employed by the contractor is regulated by Rule 25(2)(v) of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Central Rules, 1971. Relevant portion of the status report is reproduced hereunder:

"3. It is submitted that the DoPT has vide OM dated 29.07.2019 informed that DoPT has already issued an OM dated 07.06.1988 in respect of wages of casual labourers engaged by Ministries/Departments which is in consonance with the judgment of the Hon'ble Supreme Court in State of Punjab vs Jagjit Singh – (2017) 1 SCC 148. Para IV of the OM dated 07.06.1988 states as under:-

"Where the nature of work entrusted to the casual workers and regular employees is the same, the casual workers may be paid at the rate of 1/30th of the pay at the minimum of the relevant pay scale plus dearness allowance for work of 8 hours a day"

A copy of the OM dated 29.07.2019 alongwith OM dated 07.06.1988 is annexed herewith and marked as ANNEXURE-A.

4. With regard to the implementation of the OM dated 07.06.1988 in the PSUs/Corporations under the Central Government, Department of Public Enterprises is required to be approached and consulted which will require some time.
5. It is further submitted that the matter for equal pay for equal work to the workmen employed by the contractor is regulated under the provisions of Rule 25(2) (v) of the Contract Labour (Regulation and Abolition) Central Rules, 1971 which reads as under:-

“(v) (a) in cases where the workman employed by the contractor perform the same or similar kind of work as the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment, the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service of the workmen of the contractor shall be the same as applicable to the workmen directly employed by the principal employer of the establishment on the same or similar kind of work:

Provided that in the case of any disagreement with regard to the type of work the same shall be decided by the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) [];

(b) in other cases the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and conditions of service of the workmen of the contractor shall be such as may be specified in this behalf by 1 [the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central)];

Explanation.- While determining the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of services under (b) above, the Deputy Chief Labour Commissioner (Central) shall have due regard to the wage rates, holidays, hours of work and other conditions of service obtaining in similar employments;”

5. The Central Government has produced OM No.49014/1/2017-Estt.(C)pt dated 04th September, 2019 issued to all the Ministries and Departments of Government of India reiterating OM No.49014/2/86 Estt.(C) dated 07th June, 1988. Relevant portion of the office memorandum is reproduced hereunder:-
