

No. 12037/40/2013-FTC
Government of India
Department of Personnel and Training
Training Division
.....

Dated the 3rd October, 2013

CORRINGENDUM

In continuation of this Department's circular of even number dated 25th September 2013, Para 3 (c) which relates to Upper Age Limit, has been revised and may be read as follows:

“The upper age limit for long term and short-term training programmes will be 45 years and 52 years respectively and officers born on or after 1st October 1968 and on or after 1st October 1961 will be eligible for applying for long-term programmes and short-term programmes respectively. However, there is no age limit for the short-term programmes at Harvard University, Cambridge University and ANZSOG for officers of Joint Secretary/Additional Secretary/Secretary level. However, the officers applying for these programmes should have minimum 1 (one) year of service left for superannuation.”

2. Other provisions of the circular remain the same.

(Deepika Lohia Aran)
Deputy Secretary (FTC)

To

1. The Chief Secretaries of all the State Governments/ UTs.
2. The Secretaries of all the Ministries/Departments of Government of India.