- (1) Shri Parmatma Prasad Verma has submitted his representation stating that his wife is suffering from acute kidney problem. One kidney is not functioning properly, while the other one has been implanted as it has been donated by her mother. After perusal of the record it was found to be hard and genuine case and committee therefore decided to exclude his name from the list of Uttaranchal allottees.
- (2) Cases of Shri R.K. Singh and Shri Prem Shankar Srivastava are sub-judice. Both of them got stay order from the Hon'ble High Court. The administrative department has been directed to expedite the pairvi of the case. Meanwhile their allotment to Uttaranchal is subject to the final judgement of the Hon'ble High Court.
- (3) Shri J.K. Singh represented that his allotment to Uttaranchal violates para 2(b)(6) of the procedure laid down in the G.O. dated July 15, 2002. He pleaded that according to the said para instead of his name, the name of Shri Ajay Kumar Srivastava of 1982-83 batch be included in the list of Uttaranchal allottee. The administrative department accepted his logic but ruled out to enlist the name of Shri Ajay Kumar Srivastava because his wife, who is working in Uttar Pradesh, is in a higher scale of pay of Rs. 12000-16500. Therefore under spouse scheme Shri Ajay Kumar Srivastava has the benefit of not to be allotted to Uttaranchal inspite of being junior one. The Committee therefore decided to exclude the name of Shri J.K. Singh from the list of Uttaranchal allottees.

(2) Shri Rakesh Chandra, Shri Bharat Lal and Shri Govind Sharan have been allotted to Uttaranchal under the scheduled caste reservation and pro-rata ratio. Citing several example in this regard they disputed that due heed has not been taken in their cases by the department while calculating the pro-rata reservation percentage. After due consideration the Committee found that pro-rata ratio has not been worked out correctly as envisaged in guidelines issued by Govt. of India in their letter dated December, 22, 2000. The Committee thus decided to drop the names of these three employees from the list of Uttaranchal allottee.
