Lucknow.

Subject: Recommendation of the State Advisory Committee in the meeting held on 22.01.2010 in respect of Home (Police) Department – regarding

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject noted above and to say that a list of 26 personnel whose cases were recommended for acceptance by the State Advisory Committee in its previous meetings were placed before the Committee mentioning that communications in their cases has not been issued by the Government of India.

In this regard it is clarified that Final Allocation Order are being issued in respect of the personnel allocated to Uttarakhand only. Whenever the representations against tentative final allocation list are considered and recommended for acceptance by the State Advisory Committee, the name of the personnel is deleted from the final allocation list, no communication is issued by the Government of India as such personnel automatically stand allocated to Uttar Pradesh.

Yours faithfully,

S. Nayak
