Subject: Consideration of case of Late Shri Raghuvver Kureel, Rajya Niyojan Sansthan, Naveen Prabhag, Planning Deptt.- egarding

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject noted above and to say that the State Advisory Committee in its meeting held on 20.10.2009 considered the case of Late Shri Raghuvver Kureel, Rajya Niyojan Sansthan, Planning Deptt. The Committee decided that if an employee who has been finally allocated by the Government of India but is not relieved in view of the stay order of the Court, dies before getting relieved, in that case all his dues/pension etc. would be paid by the State, he was working with before his death.

The case of Late Shri Raghuvver Kureel may kindly be processed accordingly. The above position may also be brought to the notice of all the Departments of the State Government for compliance.

Yours faithfully,
