It works under the aegis of the Ministry of Personnel, Public Grievances and Pensions, Department of Personnel & Training, Government of India.

2. CCSCSB, in collaboration with State Government, Union Territory and Regional Sports Boards organises All India Civil Services Tournaments (AICS) in various disciplines every year. These tournaments are open to the civilian employees of the Central & State Governments/Union Territory Administrations. These tournaments not only provide opportunity to the Central Government and State Government employees to meet and interact with each other in the field of Sports, but also help in fostering a spirit of national integration. However, due to spread of COVID-19 pandemic the following AICS tournaments could not be conducted during 2021-22:-

Sr.No.	Discipline of Sports	Number of days required to organise the tournament
1.	Hockey	8 Days
2.	Volleyball	5 Days
3.	Table Tennis	5 Days
4.	Weightlifting, Powerlifting and Best Physique	5 Days
5.	Music, Dance and Drama	5 Days

3. The matter has been considered and it has been decided to grant relaxation upto 31st May, 2022 to conduct remaining AICS Tournaments. The eligibility criteria for participation of players in the tournaments shall remain unchanged. The tournaments may be organised by State Governments, Union Territories and Regional Sports Boards by following the appropriate covid protocols issued by Central Government/State Government from time to time.

Contd....P/2..

4. I shall, therefore, be grateful if you could kindly accept hosting one/two or more AICS Tournaments in your State/UT till 31st May, 2022 while observing all Covid-19 guidelines issued by Central/State Governments. A line of confirmation to this effect at the earliest may please be sent on Email ID: kb.malhotra@nic.in
