Sub:- Consideration of representation of Shri Dilip Kumar, Food & Civil Supplies Department in compliance of the directions dated 19/11/2009 of Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad, Lucknow Bench, Writ Petition No.11519/2006 – regarding

Sir,

I am directed to refer to the subject noted above and to say that Hon'ble High Court of Allahabad, Lucknow Bench in W.P. No.711519/2006 linked with W.P. No.49431/2005(Ram Pal Singh) vide order dated 19/11/2009 directed that "The case in which objections are not considered, the same will be considered by the Union of India in consultation with the state/s under section 73 of the Uttar Pradesh Reorganisation Act, 2000 within a period of three months from the date of communication of this order upon giving fullest opportunity of hearing and by passing a reasoned order in the individual cases. At the time of passing order, the authority concerned will give preferential value to the modalities already made known to the parties for the purpose. So far as consequential orders are concerned, since consideration by the Union of India in consultation with the State/s is already over, the consequential orders will be passed also within such period. However the orders which will be passed finally in respect of any of the matters upon consideration of objection or communication of consequential orders will be finally binding upon the parties. Accordingly all the writ petitions are disposed of however without imposing any cost."

2. The matter was considered by the Committee in its meeting held on 14-2-2011. The Committee was informed that no new representation has been received from the petitioner in pursuance of the Hon'ble Court's direction. It took cognizance that his original representation against Tentative Final Allocation List was considered by the State Advisory Committee in the meeting held on 7-7-2005 and was rejected being juniormost in the cadre.

The Committee, therefore, recommended for rejection of revision of his allocation to Uttar Pradesh.

3. The Government of India has accepted the recommendation of the Committee and accordingly final allocation of Shri Dilip Kumar continues to be the successor State of Uttarakhand. The officer/official concerned may kindly be apprised accordingly.

Yours faithfully,

S. Nayak
