4) Pensionary benefits:

- i) Resignation from Government service with a view to secure employment in a Central public enterprise with proper permission will not entail forfeiture of the service for the purpose of retirement/terminal benefits. In such cases, the Government servant concerned shall be deemed to have retired from service from the date of such resignation and shall be eligible to receive all retirement/terminal benefits as admissible under the relevant rules applicable to him in his parent organisation.
- ii) The officer eligible for pension should exercise an option within 6 months of the date of his resignation for either of the following two alternatives:-
 - a) Pro-rata monthly pension and death-cum-retirement gratuity as admissible under the relevant rules.
 - b) Pro-rata gratuity and a lumpsum amount in lieu of pension worked out with reference to the commutation tables applicable on the date of resignation.

- iv) A Government servant who opts for pro-rata monthly pension on his resignation from Government service will not be entitled to relief on pension during his service in the public enterprise.

NOTE: Where no option is exercised within the prescribed time limit, the officer will be governed by alternative (a) above. Option once exercised shall be treated as final.

If there is no family pension scheme in a public enterprise, or if the officer does not become eligible to join family pension scheme in the enterprise, the family pension as admissible under the Central Government will be allowed to him.
