NOTE: Generally, classes will be held on every Monday. In addition, there will be intensive lecture during March 6-10, 2023. Detailed schedule is on attached Annex.

Course Description

The NTA is the administrative agency in charge of imposing and collecting all national taxes except for custom duties in Japan. The NTA offers staff trainings for domestic tax officials at its training institution, the NTC. The NTA also offers various training courses for developing countries' tax officials as a part of international cooperation. This "Practicum at the NTA" started in 1996 as one of those training courses for foreign tax officials who study at Japanese graduate schools.

This course includes;

- Lectures (Overview of Japanese tax administration and tax system, Taxpayer service, Verification (Tax audit), Tax debt collection, International taxation and Human resource management, etc.)
- Intensive lecture and practice negotiation (Tax treaty)
- Study visits (Tax education room, Call center (Enquiries, Tax debt collection), Regional Taxation Bureau, National Tax College Wako Campus, Japan Federation of CPTAs' Associations)
NOTE: Study visits might be provided only if the COVID-19 pandemic is settled down.
- Presentation and paper writing

Course Objectives

The aim of this course is to offer developing countries' tax officials with knowledge on Japanese tax systems, tax administration, and international taxation so that they can contribute to improving tax administration of their respective countries.

Students who successfully complete this course will be able to;

- Understand Japanese tax administration
- Identify an issue or problem in their tax administration
- Find a solution to the problem in their tax administration
- Explain the importance of tax treaty and international cooperation among tax authorities
- Build up a connection with students from different countries/universities

Textbooks

The NTC will provide handouts by each class. And, the following hard copy books will be distributed to students for free as references.

1. A textbook on Japanese Tax Administration 2022 Edition, National Tax College
2. Tax Administration 2021 OECD
https://read.oecd-ilibrary.org/taxation/tax-administration-2021_cef472b9-en/
3. Japan Master Tax Guide 2022/2023, CCH Asia Pte Limited

Presentation Requirements

1. Country Report

Students are required to deliver a Country Report Presentation at the beginning of this course to understand each other. Topics can be included such as organization name, current position, overview of their country, government, an administrative office, tax system, tax administration, budget, current major issues on tax system and tax administration and so on.

2. Research Paper

Regarding a research paper, students have to make presentations to get advice from all faculty members of the NTC and/or professors of their graduate schools for completing the paper.

Course Schedule

Tentative course calendar is as attached Annex. The schedule may be changed due to COVID-19 pandemic.

Evaluation

At the end of the course, the evaluation will be notified to graduate school the student belongs to.

Grades will be given based on their attendance and contribution to classes, and research paper (attendance and contribution to the class: 20 point, research paper: 20 point, total: 40 point).

S, A, B, C and F will be used as a grading scale;

Grade	Point	Pass / Fail
S	40-36	Pass
A	35-32
B	31-28
C	27-24
F	23-00	Fail

Course Policies

All the students are expected to observe the following rules in this course. Serious violations against the rules might influence the evaluation. In addition, if they fail to comply with the rules seriously or repeatedly, the NTC might take the following measures;

- Strict warning (admonition)
- Prohibition from attending the NTA practicum for a considerable period of time
- Prohibition from continuing the NTA practicum
- Notification to the government, embassy, or consulate of their countries.

1. Rules and requirements in case of absence

In principle, students are required to attend every class of this course. Delay or leave without notice also influence the grade evaluation. In case students are not able to attend a class due to illness or other reasons beyond their control, they shall inform the NTC staff in charge by phone or e-mail prior to the beginning of the class. If students need to leave Japan temporarily, and be absent from some classes, they shall inform the NTC staff, of the reason, duration, and contact information in advance.

2. At all times

Students shall follow the instructions of the faculty members of the NTC. Be punctual and seated five minutes before the class starts. If students leave the room during class, they have to obtain the permission of the faculty of the NTC.

Graduate School of Business and Commerce

Keio University

Admissions Policy (Policies for Admission to the University)

In line with achieving our educational objectives, the Graduate School of Business and Commerce welcomes applications for the master's program from individuals who meet the following requirements:

(1) Those with knowledge and academic ability equivalent to a bachelor's degree in their chosen field.

Graduate school is a place of academic exploration, and students are expected to expand the horizons of their knowledge through innovative research, which we believe requires basic knowledge and academic skills.

(2) Those with a positive attitude and the willingness to boldly take on the challenge of solving new problems.

We believe that it is essential for students to not only acquire knowledge but also to have a critical eye for common sense, a willingness to discover new problems, and a positive attitude to boldly take on the challenge of solving them.

(3) Those with a clear sense of purpose in their research.

To complete the program, students are required to complete a master's thesis based on logical thinking and analytical skills, which we believe requires a clear sense of purpose.

The Management of Personal Information at Keio University

At Keio University, personal information is managed safely and appropriately in compliance with the university's "Basic Policy Concerning Protection of Personal Information" and "Rules to Protect Personal Information."

Personal information provided when making an application, completing admissions procedures, and issuing notifications following graduation, including names, addresses, and other details, will be used at each department of Keio University for 1) processing applications for, and conducting of, entrance examinations, as well as announcements of final results; 2) admission procedures; 3) administration, correspondence, and procedures relating to academic affairs, including academic activities to which the student contributes; 4) administration, correspondence, and procedures relating to general student life; 5) administration, correspondence, and procedures relating to the use of university facilities and equipment; 6) communications for soliciting donations, notification regarding school bonds, and inviting recipients to join the Keio Iji-kai (Support Group) or apply for the Keio Card; 7) sending documents to students and guarantors and other communications; and 8) dispatching documents related to the Mita-kai (alumni association); and any other matters accompanying these tasks. Additionally, the data of personal information that has been statistically processed so that individuals cannot be identified will be used as survey and research material for the selection of entrants to the university.

Specific duties will be undertaken by contractors commissioned by Keio University (hereinafter "commissioned contractors") to perform the tasks outlined above. When outsourcing tasks, all or part of the personal information provided by applicants may be shared with commissioned contractors to the extent that it is necessary to carry out their duties. Keio University may also share personal information following graduation, within the extent that this is required for procedures and screenings, upon request from the Mita-kai (Alumni Associations), as part of its support for the Mita-kai's activities.

Exceptions may be made to share personal information with third parties in cases where there is a legal obligation to disclose information, or when it is deemed necessary to protect the life, physical wellbeing, property, or other rights and interests of the student or a third party and it is not possible to obtain the consent of the student in question. Keio University will not provide personal information to a third party in any circumstances other than those described above.

You will hereby be deemed to be in agreement with the above matters, in undertaking all procedures. Please read and consider these factors thoroughly before consenting.

Security Export Controls

To ensure that the content of education and research for international students does not interfere with the maintenance of international peace and security, Keio University maintains security export controls based on the Foreign Exchange and Foreign Trade Act. Under these controls, the university confirms in advance whether the permission of the Minister of Economy, Trade and Industry is required before exporting/transferring goods and technologies outside Japan, or before providing international students and researchers in Japan with access to those technologies. As a result, students may not be able to participate in academic or research activities as desired.

*For details on security export controls, please refer to the website of the Ministry of Economy, Trade and Industry.

1-5. Application Method

The application process is to be completed via the online application system, "The Admissions Office(TAO)".

<https://admissions-office.net/en/portal>

You must first create an account on TAO. Make sure that your language setting is English. After creating your TAO account, please click "Keio University" and select "TPM 2023" from "Admission Schemes" menu. Follow the onscreen instructions when filling out or uploading the materials. Be sure to click "Complete my application" button when completing your application. Make sure to confirm your application status has been changed to "Application Completed".

Once your application has fulfilled all of the requirements for it to be reviewed, you will receive an "Application Completed Notification E-mail" in early February. In case you do not receive this e-mail, regardless of the fact that you did what you need to do for your application to be accepted, please ensure to contact Keio University Academic Affairs Group for Graduate Admissions.

[Important Notes on Application]

1. Under no circumstances can we accept incomplete applications, late applications, or applications that are not accompanied by full payment of the prescribed application fee by the corresponding deadline. Furthermore, supplemental application materials will not be accepted after the end of the application period except when special permission has been granted. Therefore, you should make sure you have prepared all the required documentation before submitting your application.
2. Keio University does not notify you of your application status, including informing you about parts of the application that are missing or incomplete, as it is your responsibility to complete your application by the given deadline.
3. The following policy applies in the event that information provided in the application is discovered to be incorrect or fraudulent, regardless of the reason:
 - A. While the applicant is in the application or screening process
The applicant will be deemed to be ineligible for the program, and the application fee he/she has paid will not be refunded.
 - B. After the applicant has been accepted for enrollment
The applicant's acceptance for enrollment will be revoked, and the application fee he/she has paid will not be refunded. The required academic fees and expenses that have already been paid will be refunded.
 - C. After the applicant has enrolled in the program
The applicant will be expelled from the program, and neither the application fee nor the required academic fees and expenses he/she has paid will be refunded.
4. If your name is not written consistently across all of your required application documents, make sure to contact Keio University Academic Affairs Group for Graduate Admissions by e-mail with an explanation of the discrepancy.
5. Queries concerning the screening results will not be accepted.
6. Application documents and other related material will not be returned under any circumstances.

7. Unless otherwise noted, all times and dates indicated in the Application procedures and Admissions Procedures are in Japan Standard Time (JST, UTC+09).
8. In unforeseen circumstances, the Graduate School of Business and Commerce may change the schedule for admissions. In principle, Keio University does not bear the responsibility for any inconvenience, cost, or any kind of loss caused to applicants as a result of this rescheduling. As the university website will be used to provide information and supplemental communication pertaining to the above, applicants are advised to check the following website regularly:
<https://www.keio.ac.jp/en/grad-admissions/>

1-6. Application Documents

Below is a list of documents that all applicants are required to submit. Only application documents received during each of the specified application periods will be accepted for screening. Upon reviewing your application documents, we may get in contact with you to clarify information in your application. Make sure to check your e-mail and TAO message frequently.

Before proceeding with your application, please read the notes below carefully.

Notes

① Applicant Information

Applicants are required to complete the form and upload applicant's photo and a copy of your passport.

Applicant's Photo

- The image should be clear and in full color (no black and white images.)
- The image must show a full front view of the subject's face and shoulders. No hats, photo filters, or distracting backgrounds are allowed.
- Backgrounds should be a plain white, gray, or blue solid tone (no landscapes, curtains, etc.)
- The image should not be edited or modified using photo software, apps, or other means.
- The photo must be saved as a JPEG file (file extension: ".jpg").

A copy of your passport

- Upload a copy of your passport photo page on the online application system as a PDF file.
- If you are a citizen of more than one country, please upload copies of your passports. You need to merge them into one file when uploading it on the online application system.
- If it is not possible to submit a copy of your passport, a copy of an identification card/document such as a driving license or residence card will also be accepted.

② Study Plan and Personal Statement

- Submit a document consisting of Study Plan and Personal Statement.
- For Study Plan, describe the field of interest in which you hope to develop expertise and your plan for doing so. You should also discuss the practical applications such study would have after you complete the program. You may also describe your future career plans after completing the program.
- For Personal Statement, discuss your strength as an applicant to this program. You should explain your academic and professional background, your motivation for undertaking this program, and anything else you would like the reviewer to know. In discussing your professional background, you should describe your responsibilities, projects undertaken, and other professional accomplishments that demonstrate your experience in tax policy making or tax administration.
- As there is no prescribed form for this document, you can write your statement in any format. However, make sure to note the following:
 1. Put your name and the title at the top.
 2. Put page number on each page of the statement.

③ Academic Background and Employment Record

Fill out in English the prescribed form, which is downloadable from the URL below, and upload it as a PDF file on the online application system.

<https://www.keio.ac.jp/en/grad-admissions/international-students/tpm-gsbc/>

④ Proof of Employment

Proof of current employment requires a signed and dated letter written within the last three months. Any proof of employment should be on your employer's letterhead, state the timeframe you were an employee, and be signed by an authority such as head of human resources or your manager. It would be best if this letter also lists your last title or position. Documentation of past employment can be the letter of offer of employment

⑤English Test Scores

As proof of the applicant's English ability, Keio University will ONLY accept an official report of TOEFL or IELTS scores taken within two years of the application deadline. Any other certifications will NOT be considered.

- Input your scores and Upload a copy of your score report on the online application system.
- Have the testing agency send the official scores directly to the Keio University Academic Affairs Group for Graduate Admissions. Keio University's institution code for TOEFL® is 0773. IELTS does not use institution codes. If you need institutional information to make a request for IELTS score sending to Keio University, use the information found in the Contact section (page 11).
- Keio will access to Official Score Reports through the online portal based on a copy of your score report. It may take two weeks for the score reports to be delivered online to Keio University. Make sure to take the test and send the Official Score Report well in advance. We will not respond to inquiries regarding the arrival of score reports.
- The requirements for English test scores are not applied to those who received a degree from an educational institution where all instruction is provided in English. Such an applicant must submit an official document issued by the educational institution certifying that all instruction was provided in English. If the official transcript of academic records or the graduation/degree certificate includes that information, a separate document will not be needed.

⑥Other materials (if deemed relevant) (Optional)

- Those who have changed their name after graduation and have a different name from the one written in these certificates must submit official certification which identifies these names, such as their family register.
- Those who have submitted a Diploma/Transcript written in a language other than Japanese or English must submit a Japanese or English translation verified by an official organization such as an embassy or a notary office.
- If you have any additional information that was not specifically requested, merge them into one file and upload it on the online application system as a PDF file. The size of the documents must be no larger than 20 MB in total.

⑦Diploma / Certificate of Bachelor's (Master's) Degree (in English or Japanese)

- The certificate must be submitted by the University issuing the certificate. Register the e-mail address of a person who is able to submit the certificate on the online application system (hereafter, 'the uploader'). We strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to do so.
- After registering the e-mail address, the uploader will receive an e-mail asking him or her to upload the certificate on the online application system as a PDF file.

- The uploader also needs to create TAO account to upload the file on the online application system(TAO).
- The certificate must include the applicant's full name, date of birth, the month of graduation, and the degree obtained.
- The certificate must be the digital version of the original or a certified true copy. A certified true copy is a photocopy of an original document that has been stamped or endorsed by the issuing school. Digital versions of uncertified true copies are not accepted.
- In case your school is unable to upload the certificate on the online application system due to an unavoidable reason, you should contact us by e-mail beforehand.
- If the certificate is written in a language other than Japanese or English, a Japanese or English translation verified by an official organization such as an embassy or a notary office must also be submitted by the applicant as “⑥other materials”.

⑧Academic Transcript (in English or Japanese)

- The transcript must be sent by the University issuing the transcript. Register the email address of a person who is able to submit the transcript on the online application system (hereafter, 'the uploader'). We strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to do so.
- After registering the e-mail address, the uploader will receive an e-mail asking him or her to upload the transcript on the online application system as a PDF file.
- The uploader also needs to create TAO account to upload the file on the online application system(TAO).
- The transcript must be the digital version of the original or a certified true copy. A certified true copy is a photocopy of an original document that has been stamped or endorsed by the issuing school. Digital versions of uncertified true copies are not accepted.
- The transcript should be a final transcript, showing all coursework completed.
- In case your school is unable to upload the transcripts on the online application system due to an unavoidable reason, you should contact us by e-mail beforehand.
- If the transcript is written in a language other than Japanese or English, a Japanese or English translation verified by an official organization such as an embassy or a notary office must also be submitted by the applicant as “⑥other materials”.

⑨Letters of Recommendation [2 letters required, up to 3 letters]

- The prescribed form is downloadable from the URL below.
<https://www.keio.ac.jp/en/grad-admissions/international-students/tpm-gsbc/>
- The letters of recommendation must be filled out by two people who have direct knowledge of the applicant's professional experience. (hereafter, 'the writer').
- The writers must be individuals who can attest to your professional experiences at work. It is strongly recommended at least one of the two required professional recommendations be from a current or former supervisor. If you have had paid employment, it is strongly preferred you seek professional recommendations from people you have worked with during your paid employment.

- Submission of the letter of recommendation by a professor of the university from which the applicant graduated is optional.
- Make sure to have the writer(s) include both his or her name and affiliation/position in the letter. Letters of recommendation without these details are not acceptable.
- Register the e-mail address(es) of the writer(s) on the online application system(TAO). We strongly recommend that you allow plenty of time before the deadline to do so.
- After registering the e-mail address(es), the writer(s) will receive an e-mail asking him or her to submit a Letter of Recommendation for you, which contains a link to access the online application system(TAO).
- The writer(s) create TAO account and upload the letter on the online application system as a PDF file by following the on-screen instructions.
- Once the letter is submitted by the writer, the status will be changed from "Not Submitted" to "Submitted".
- We may contact the writers if necessary.

1-7. Application Fee

Applicants are required to pay an application fee of JPY 10,000 through the online application system(TAO) by credit card. Be sure to read the onscreen instructions, and make the payment before you submit your application. We do not waive the application fee under any circumstance. The periods for making this payment are as follows:

Periods for making payment	10:00 a.m. on December 1, 2022 – 3:00 p.m. on January 6, 2023
